REMOTE INTERPRETATION SERVICE VENDORS

Many practices have asked NPO for the name of remote interpreter services. As a convenience to practices, NPO reached out to three different interpreter services, each of which is currently used, or has been used, by at least one NPO practice. This was done simply to gather the information in one place for you, to streamline your own research efforts. We asked the services to provide their very best pricing, but please feel free to negotiate on your own behalf. We are sharing with you the responses from each company below. If your practice is interested in utilizing one of these services, please follow up with the contact listed. Listed in alphabetical order:
