

Welcome!

Your healthcare team wants to provide you with the best care possible. This means providing care that honors and respects you and your values.

They have chosen some educational videos just for you. Please take the time to watch these videos. Then, discuss with your healthcare team what matters most to you.

Here is the content from your healthcare team:

- What's Important to You - Advance Care Planning for a General Audience - English U.S. (5m 53s)
